Position Your Company as a Global Food Safety Leader

October 27-30, 2020, spanning two hemispheres

As the premier food safety event, SQF Global gathers a dynamic community of food producers, retailers, leaders, and service innovators to push the boundaries of productivity and profitability—together.

SQF Global Pledge

SQF Global brings together leaders across a wide range of food safety operations and job functions including compliance, quality, training, regulatory, audit, technical and more.

We pledge to address shared challenges and opportunities in a very engaging online event experience.

We deliver insights into:

- Improved operations and production
- Securing and raising audit scores
- Reducing operational risks
- Global supply chain trends

A premier food safety event

SQF Global will gather 1,000 worldwide food safety professionals for business, production and food safety insights addressing shared challenges and opportunities. SQF Global provides an opportunity for the food safety community to learn, collaborate, engage, and connect with peers. We have crafted a dynamic event agenda spanning across two hemispheres, multiple languages and time zones.

Global Opportunities

There are 10,000 SQF Certified Sites spread across the globe in more than 40 countries.

By creating SQF Global, we bring together a larger community and create more unity and collaboration.

For SQF Global programming, we are working with the SQF program committee on adapting sessions to add global speakers including retailers and individuals with insights to global workforce, production, and supply chain issues.

Sponsorship Packages to Position Your Company Well

We have crafted sponsorship opportunities featuring 1-on-1 virtual business exchanges, roundtables and meeting times. You can use this marketplace to your advantage. We can work with you and your team for the best package and benefits to meet your business objectives. Let's discuss your options.

SQF Global will utilize an interactive online event platform that prioritizes connection points between attendees, sponsor company presence and the exchange of educational thought leadership. Attendees will have access to the platform pre- and post-event.

Global Sponsor (Limit three)

Your Sponsorship features supporting the #IamSQF Campaign

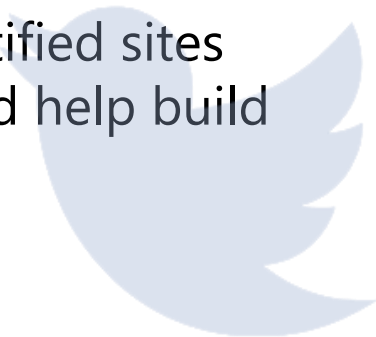

Beginning September 8th, SQF will promote a #IamSQF social campaign that will encourage the SQF community to record a greeting in their native language that says hello, their location, and their connection to the SQF program.

The #IamSQF campaign will be implemented to showcase the breadth of the community.

The SQF Global Sponsors will have exclusive connection to this campaign that will run September to December 2020 and be featured during the event.

The idea of #IamSQF is to showcase a broad sampling of the more than 10,000 SQF certified sites in 40 countries. As a sponsor, we encourage you to promote the #IamSQF campaign and help build the spirit and connections.

Lead Generation Made Easy: Let Technology do the Work

The SQF Global Platform actively tracks attendees who visit the Partner Expo and conducts back-end analysis. Information is shared with your company at the close of SQF Global.

How it works:

Soft Leads

Obtain soft leads when an attendee interacts with you or your representatives

Hard Leads

Soft leads will convert to hard leads when an attendee enters your booth and performs an action such as downloading a document or taking notes.
